

Day of the Dead Celebration

Thursday, October 31, 2019 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.
at the Hudson Museum, Collins Center for the Arts, The University of Maine

Join us for our annual Day of the Dead, Dia de los Muertos celebration, a Mexican holiday that honors departed family, friends, and ancestors.

The event's activities include:

- A presentation by Eunice Loredo on this tradition, its origins and how it is celebrated in Mexico.
- An opportunity for students to try their hand at making traditional decorations, papel picado, paper skull masks, tissue paper flowers and clay skulls. They may also explore the Hudson Museum's Precolumbian collections.
- Traditional refreshments will be served at the end of the event-Day of the Dead bread and punch.

This event is geared for Middle and High School students and Spanish classes.

Space is limited to 300 students and reservations are required. For more information or to make a reservation, please call 581-1904 or email um.hudsonmuseum@maine.edu

Thank you to our Event Sponsor:

Bangor Savings Bank

You matter more.

Member FDIC

The University of Maine is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution. For more information or to request a disability accommodation, call 207.581.1226

